

Monthly Departmental Report: Museum August 2017

The HVAC system at the Post Office was installed in 1995 when the building was converted from Hartsville Memorial Library into Hartsville Museum. In June 2017 the system started working at half capacity and plans had to be made to replace the outdoor condensers and indoor air handler. Work began on August 30. The new system will be in place after Labor Day. The Swamp Fox Quilt Exhibit ended August 31.
