

Welcome to Hartsville, SC

Our community is an unusual treasure – a place of culture, character and opportunities for residents and visitors alike. Our passion for a strong quality of life is real. You see it in our smiles, our theaters, or on display at the Black Creek Arts Center. You'll hear it in the crack of a bat at Byerly Park, or in the quiet hum of crickets on a stroll through Kalmia Gardens. You'll taste it in our restaurants and by buying reminders in our shops.

In Hartsville, we offer a little bit of something for everyone. We appreciate you choosing to visit our quaint, beautiful town. Give yourself a chance to take in what we have to offer, and enjoy your stay!

Visit The Key, Hartsville's Visitors Center, located at 106 East Carolina Avenue, beside City Hall in Downtown for information about our city.

BYERLY PARK

Byerly Park is a 93 acre multi-use recreational complex developed to improve the quality of life for residents of Hartsville. This complex also serves as a home to tournaments that choose to make Hartsville their home on the weekends.

Each acre of the complex is filled with a diverse offering of activities including:

- 2 Soccer Fields
- 8 Softball/Baseball Fields
- 2 Football Fields
- 6 Tennis Courts
- 400 Meter 8-lane Track and Field Facility
- Picnic Area
- Concessions
- Inclusive and Handicapable Playground
- Dog Park for Large and Small Dogs

PARKING

Free parking is available in one of the four parking lots on site. We ask that guests park in the designated areas throughout the Byerly Park Sports Complex.
