PRESENTATIONS

Master Plan Discussion - City Manager Moore

A Master Plan is different from a Comprehensive Plan. The last one we have was done in 2014. An updated plan by the Boudreaux Group, who did the last one, will cost between $185, 00 - $200,000. This would include Hartsville after COVID, current interests, community projects, above ground work, social changes, and future goals. We have accomplished a lot from the 2014 plan. We will move forward.
