

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Palmetto State is home to six commercial service airports, 54 general aviation airports and 5 busy military airfields that provide essential support to South Carolina’s diversified business base, increasing population and growing tourism industry; and,

WHEREAS, airports support and assist South Carolina in many ways including recreational flying, providing a gateway to communities and tourist attractions, accommodating agricultural spraying, supporting air cargo and air freight shipments, helping law enforcement, supporting the military and its operations, providing access in times of emergency and supporting medical needs and the medical profession; and,

WHEREAS, many businesses in our state rely on aviation, both commercial service and general aviation airports, for the efficient transportation of people and goods; and,

WHEREAS, the Hartsville Regional Airport sees close to 24,000 flights annually, is home to a busy flight school and according to the 2018 South Carolina Airport Economic Impact report supports a $2.1 million-dollar economic benefit to the local economy annually; and

WHEREAS, with over 400 aerospace-related companies in the Palmetto State, aviation is a multi-billion-dollar industry and, along with commercial service airports, general aviation airports, and military airfields, supports more than 122,000 jobs and contributes millions each year in tax benefits to state and local governments. The nation’s aviation infrastructure represents an important public benefit.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Casey Hancock, Mayor, City of Hartsville, do hereby proclaim August 2024 as in the city of Hartsville and encourage our citizens to recognize general aviation for its significant contributions to our quality of life and economic growth and stability.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I, hereunto set my hand and cause to be affixed the seal of the City of Hartsville.

Casey Hancock, Mayor
