Future Projects

Working on bundle/day pricing for The Edition.

Creating new marketing materials, brochures and social media pages for Lawton and The Edition.

Market research on other local venues to compare Lawton and The Edition to so we can compare prices and packages of what is being offered at other locations.

Work on more community outreach with local hotels, realtors, and major businesses like Duke and Sonoco. Provide them with a brochure of The Key, all of our social media sites and regular websites so visitors and people moving to the area have the information they need.

Work more closely with the museum during the holiday events and joint promotions.
