Following Social Distancing principles the Guest Registration book is not available for visitors to sign at this time.

Museum News:

- The Hartsville Museum hosted its first in-person Lecture Series with guest speaker Emory Waters: Mr. Waters, a Hartsville native and author, recounted stories and answered audience questions about his book “The City We Knew But Everybody Forgot: Hartsville The African American Experience.”
- In an effort to offer additional opportunities for visitors to view our April exhibits we offered extended evening hours on Thursdays from 5:00 – 7:00, opening The Edition from 11:00 – 2:00 on Thursday and Friday and for the first time since the COVID-19 outbreak the Museum was open two Saturday’s in April.
- April Donations included:
  - Rex Butler donated 23 prints by Virginia Fouche Bolton. Virginia Fouche Bolton was born in Hartsville and moved to Charleston at the age of 14, becoming a professional painter and one of Charleston’s finest artists.
  - Cindy Jackson donated a Butler High School band uniform.
  - Dr. Alvin Heatley donated a Butler High School girls’ basketball uniform.
