Museum News:

- 3rd Annual Darkside Tour was a success. 3 tour guides, new stories and a few unique details made each tour exciting for the 67 lucky ticket holders.
- The museum helped Butler High School celebrate their 100th Anniversary. Exhibits representing Butler High School were on display at The Edition, Center Theater and the Hartsville Museum. Many alumni enjoyed a free Ghost tour of the museum hosted by Darkside tour guides.
- The Great State Paranormal team from Wilkesboro, NC conducted 2 tours at the museum where guests were taught how to use various types of paranormal equipment to conduct ghost hunting investigations.
- Tours were given this month to a local Homeschool group and the Chamber of Commerce Leadership Hartsville team.
- Santa's Workshop exhibits are underway as we begin preparation for Hartsville's Downtown Holiday Open House and Santa's Visit to the museum.
- Recent Donations for October included Pam Haynes donation of a toy Victorian wicker and rattan baby doll stroller, circa 1880.
