Museum News:

- Local "Spiritual Artist" Walter Cooks has an Art Exhibit on display at the Edition. Mr. Cooks recently moved back to Hartsville from New York and remembers fondly his first Wood Carving exhibit at the Museum in 1995. Mr. Cooks has many pieces of his artwork for sale in addition to a beautiful collection of bracelets, rings, and necklace style pendants made of brass, copper and polished stone.
- Thomas Hart 8th grade class enjoyed a scheduled tour of the Hartsville Museum, our Collections Room and the on-going digitizing project with the Odd Fellows historical documents.
- Recent Donations for March included... items from Carol Ann Godwin including a "Thank You to Our Community for 67 Years of Service." Rambo's poster, and novelty keychain from Allston Motor, Hartsville SC. Ray Vance donated a wooden egg darning for repairing socks, her Girl Scout knife, fork, and spoon set and a miniature Match Box erector set, circa 1936.
