Museum News:

- Museum fundraiser “Funeral for a Gangster” was a sold-out success. September shows were held on the 16th, 17th, 23rd and 24th. This event would not have been possible without the generous support of our sponsors: Hartsville Museum Foundation, Care South, Carolina Dental Partners, Atkins Law Firm, Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral, North Industrial Machine, Define Wealth Management, MPD Electric Cooperative, SPC Credit Union, Novolex, Jamie Beasley BBQ & more, and local jazz band, After Dark. Many friends of the museum contributed their time, talent, and resources to make this event a huge success. Proceeds will help fund the framing of 24 prints by Hartsville native, Virginia Fouche Bolton and displayed at The Edition.
- Recent donation for September included: Kathleen Cooper donated 2 original Jim Harrison pencil sketches, and 2 signed and numbered, framed prints.
