

Proclamation

WHEREAS, President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, declaring the slaves in Confederate territory free, paving the way for the passing of the 13th Amendment which formally abolished slavery in the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, word about the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation was delayed some two-and one-half years, to June 19, 1865, in reaching authorities and African Americans in the South and Southwestern United States; and

WHEREAS, Emancipation Day observations are held on different days in different states in the South and Southwest, and in other parts of the nation; and

WHEREAS, June 19th has a special meaning to African Americans, and is called “JUNETEENTH” combining the words June and Nineteenth, and has been celebrated by the African American community for over 150 years; and

WHEREAS, on June 17, 2021 President Joe Biden signed into law Juneteenth as the first new federal holiday created by Congress in nearly four decades.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Casey Hancock, Mayor of the City of Hartsville, South Carolina, hereby proclaim June 19, 2024 as in the City of Hartsville urge all citizens to become more aware of the significance of this celebration of African American History and in the heritage of our Nation and City.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause to be affixed the seal of the City of Hartsville.

Casey Hancock, Mayor
