

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the nation celebrates the week of June 17th as Waste and Recycling Workers Week; and

WHEREAS, according to the Center for Disease Control and Prevention, the eradication of many diseases in the Western World is due in large part to higher public sanitation standards resulting from effective garbage disposal; and

WHEREAS, the proper collection and disposal of waste, recycling and organic waste are integral to preventing disease, litter and dump heaps; and

WHEREAS, the Environmental Services Division of the Public Services Department are essential and work selflessly and tirelessly, in all types of weather and at risk to themselves, to provide collection, disposal, and recycling services to protect our residents and keep our community clean, safe, healthy, and beautiful; and

WHEREAS, the City of Hartsville values and celebrates our Environmental Services personnel for their dedication and commitment to carrying out the vital tasks of collecting and removing trash, recycling and yard waste which greatly benefit our daily lives.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Casey Hancock, Mayor of the City of Hartsville in the State of South Carolina do hereby proclaim the week of June 16-22, 2024, as in the City of Hartsville and encourage all our citizens and community members to recognize and thank the Environmental Services Division personnel who work hard to ensure our community is safe, clean and healthy.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause to be affixed the seal of the City of Hartsville.
